This Week's English Tasks	WC 20 th April 2020
Spelling: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Prefixes and suffixes- look at the examples, think about what the prefix and suffix means and add at least 5 more examples to each box. http://www.bigbrownbear.co.uk/demo/prefix.htm Play game practising selecting the correct prefix or suffix.
Grammar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reading the sentences on the sheet-work out if the use of the apostrophe is for omission (contraction)-a letter has been removed or for possession-belonging to. Add the missing inverted commas to the sentences that use speech and then write another 5 of your own. Continue to play 'Deal or No Deal' game using the PowerPoint.
Activity 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask the children what words were used to describe the river? Why do you think the author has written them in this way? How do they paint a picture of the river? Do they help us to hear the sounds of the river? Produce a thought shower of how the author sets the scene. Think of an alternative setting for a story involving animals-link it to your work on classification and habitats-Create another thought shower based on your chosen setting.
Activity 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Last week I asked you to focus on one of the main characters and write about them. This week think about the setting you have chosen in Activity 1 and create a character that might live in that habitat. Draw a picture of your created character and tell me about them. Think about that animal you have chosen and what human qualities they might have-personification. Think about how the animal behaves, e.g. a snake-sly, sneaky, mysterious or a parrot-loud, obnoxious etc.
Creative writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> See the PowerPoint for 'Ideas for Creative writing' Choose a different idea from last week and write! You can illustrate you work if you wish-DO NOT forget about your personal writing targets! Hopefully you can remember them!
