

April is Poetry month!

Spend some time to look at the map below. It shows most of the area from the Wind in the Willows story.

Can you spot any of the places mentioned so far?

Have a look at the picture of the cube on the right here, it is a poetry cube, six sides, each side with a different style of poem, each one decorated.

