

English Activity 3 - Train Journey Example with Paragraphs

Slowly, I stumbled onto the train. I could hear the conductor shouting loudly as the passengers hopped onto the train. Moving nervously, I looked around for a free seat. Suddenly, I noticed one at the back. It was clean, brightly coloured and spacious. Speedily, I sat down before anyone could sit there.

As the train started to move, all the chatty people sat down. Consciously, the train pulled out of the tired, ancient station. It shuddered and swayed rapidly. Then, as fast as lightning, we were off. The trees outside whizzed past like shooting stars so all I could see were blurs of green and blue. Sleeping animals lay in the vast fields. Excited, I sat staring happily out of the window. Slowly, rain began to splatter on the glass, it blocked my view of the beautiful flowers swaying in the grass.

In a flash, we had arrived. The shabby train came to a sudden stop. My bag flew rapidly off the seat as the driver slammed on the breaks. I heard the doors creak open and people rushing off onto the station. Their feet were drumming loudly on the pavement outside. It was deafening. I climbed out of the train. I was glad to be in the fresh, clean air again.
