

Expanded Noun Phrases

Which is better?

1. The dolphin jumped out of the water. Can be changed to:
2. The gorgeous, excited dolphin jumped out of the glistening ocean.

TASK: Write a paragraph of your own about the different animals / characters from The Train Mouse.

Remember, you can use more than one adjective per noun.
For example:

The monkey swung through the trees quickly.

After sunset, the bats fly through the dark sky.

In the river, the crocodile lies silently, waiting for its next dinner.

The fur of the leopard stood on end when it saw the deer.

In the sunshine, the lions stretch out their paws as they rest.

Happy writing!