

Task 1: Which sentence uses capital letters correctly?

Copy out the correct one.

The M1 northbound between Sheffield and Barnsley has been blocked by an overturned tesco lorry.

The M1 northbound between sheffield and barnsley has been blocked by an overturned Tesco lorry.

The M1 northbound between Sheffield and Barnsley has been blocked by an overturned Tesco lorry.

The m1 northbound between Sheffield and Barnsley has been blocked by an overturned Tesco lorry.

Task 2: Have a look at adverbs and adverbials on this page:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zv73bdm>

Copy out and then underline the adverbial in the sentence below.

Every week I clean the mirrors—it's a job I can see myself doing.

Now write a sentence of your own with an adverbial in.

Task 3: Have a look at prepositions on this page:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zwwp8mn/articles/zw38srd>

Now copy out and underline five prepositions in the sentences below:

Sarah walked across the playground, threw a lump of cheddar towards Mary and then ducked behind the rubbish bin. Mary, gazing at the cheese, exclaimed, "That's not very mature."