

I stole some money from my mum's purse.	I shared my fruit with Tommy because he dropped his on the floor.	You can hit someone if they hit you first.
I can't be bothered to help tidy up the classroom.	I always share my pencils and rubber.	That's my teddy. You can't hold it!
We throw stones at cars.	I like stamping on flowers in the park.	June hid her homework in her tray.
April told the teacher that Levi had hit her.	Aisha ran across the road in front of a car.	Paul held his mummy's hand to go to the ice-cream van.
Elaine and Gary crossed the road with the lollipop lady.	Richard and Zane rode their bikes without wearing a safety helmet.	Sonia found some money in the town centre and took it to the police station.
Lily finds an old ring in her mummy's jewellery box. She takes it to wear.	David pulled a funny face when his teacher asked him to write another sentence in his story.	Marlon picked up some litter off the playground floor and put it in the bin.
