

Grammar Tasks:

Have a read of these homophone examples:

1. The ball rolled down the hill and into the river.
  2. Alfie was so upset he began to cry, bawl his eyes out.
  3. Dad groaned "Have you seen all the mess in here"?
  4. In the living room it was a very happy scene.
  5. The red jacket was originally designed for a male adult size M.
  6. You could post your urgent order in the mail.
-
- A. Find examples of homophones in a book at home.
  - B. Create four sentences using homophones.
  - C. Convert the sentences above into a compound sentences, so both 1&2,3&4 and 5&6 are paired up into 3 new sentences.

Now...

Have a look at nouns and proper nouns

Common noun

man, boy,

woman, girl

country, town, city

Company, business, shop

proper noun

Jack, Tom,

Mary, Alice

England, Kendal, London

Amazon, Sony, Asda

Task: Can you search through The Train Mouse text and make a list of nouns and proper nouns?