

National Curriculum Objectives

English Year 2: Make simple additions, revisions and corrections to their own writing by proofreading to check for errors in spelling, grammar and punctuation (for example, ends of sentences punctuated correctly). More resources with this objective.

English Year 3 & Year 4: Evaluate and edit by proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve consistency, including the accurate use of pronouns in sentences. More resources with this objective.

English Year 5 & Year 6: Evaluate and edit by proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning. More resources with this objective.

English Year 3, Year 4, Year 5 & Year 6: Proofread for spelling and punctuation errors. More resources with this objective.

English Year 5 & Year 6: Evaluate and edit by ensuring the consistent and correct use of tense throughout a piece of writing. More resources with this objective.

English Year 5 & Year 6: Evaluate and edit by ensuring correct subject and verb agreement when using singular and plural, distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register. More resources with this objective.

Differentiation:

Beginner Editing could include using capital letters, adding full stops and correcting common mistakes in spelling from the first 100 high frequency words. Aimed at Year 2 Developing.

Easy Editing could include using capital letters, adding full stops, question marks or exclamation marks, correcting simple verb tenses and common mistakes in spelling from the first 100 High Frequency Words. Aimed at Year 2 Secure/Year 3 Emerging.

Tricky Editing could include using capital letters, full stops, question marks or exclamation marks, inverted commas for speech, commas to separate a list, identifying omitted words, correcting simple verb tenses and common mistakes in spelling from the next 200 high frequency words, wrong use of homophones, including using apostrophes for contracted forms. Aimed at Year 3 Secure/Year 4 Emerging.

Expert Editing could include using capital letters, full stops, question marks or exclamation marks, inverted commas for speech, commas in a list or after fronted adverbials, identifying omitted words or words written in the wrong order, correcting verb tenses and common mistakes in spelling from the next 200 high frequency words and spellings where the wrong phoneme has been used, wrong homophone, including using apostrophes for contracted and possessive forms. Aimed at Year 4 Secure/Year 5 Emerging.

Brainbox Editing could include using capital letters, full stops, question marks or exclamation marks, inverted commas for speech, commas in a list, after fronted adverbials, dashes, brackets or commas to indicate parenthesis, identifying omitted words or words written in the wrong order, correcting verb tenses and common mistakes in trickier words, including using apostrophes for contracted and possessive forms. Aimed at Year 5 Secure/Year 6 Emerging.

Genius Editing could include using capital letters, full stops, question marks or exclamation marks, inverted commas for speech and quotes, commas in a list, after fronted adverbials, dashes, brackets or commas to indicate parenthesis, colons, semi-colons, ellipsis, identifying omitted words or words written in the wrong order, correcting verb tenses and common mistakes in trickier words, including using apostrophes for contracted and possessive forms. Aimed at Year 6 Secure.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website.

classroomsecrets.com

Like this? Find more differentiated Sports resources here.

Editing Task – The Tour de France – Beginner

The Tour de France – Editing Task

teh Tour de France iz the world's largest cycling race which is held every year Last year, the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before itt started in Leeds, England this year the race wil begin in Germany cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century cycling woz particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today?

the Tour de France is unusual az instead of winning a medal, the cyclists win different coloured jerseys! the different jerseys represent different awards the white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber this year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set owt intoo 21 stages – a different stage each day this year, the race will begin in Dusseldorf in Germany on the 1st July The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France finally, the race will kome to a finish in Paris on the Champs-Elysees, on 23rd July, like it has done fore the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Circle 11 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Mark 10 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 10 spelling mistakes in green.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

The Tour de France is the world's largest cycling race which is held every year. Last year, the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. This year the race will begin in Germany.

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers.

Why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today?

The Tour de France is unusual as instead of winning a medal, the cyclists win different coloured jerseys! The different jerseys represent different awards. The white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year, the race will begin in Dusseldorf in Germany on the 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish in Paris on the Champs-Elysees, on 23rd July, like it has done for the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Circle 11 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Mark 10 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 10 spelling mistakes in green.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

teh Tour de france iz the world's largest cycling race which is hold every year Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before itt started in Leeds, england Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire this year the race wil begin in Germany

cycling first begins gaining a reputation as a popular sport inn the late 19th century cycling woz particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today

the Tour de France is unusual az instead of winning a medal, the cyclists win different coloured jerseys! the different jerseys represent different awards the white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader ov the race and the red polka dot jersey is giving to the best climber

this year is the Tour de France's 104th race The race is set owt intoo 21 stages – a different stage each day this year the race will begin in Dusseldorf in Germany on the 1st July The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France finally, the race will kome to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in Paris on 23rd July, like it has done fore the past 42 years

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 13 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 10 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 12 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 2 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 2 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline 3 verb tense errors in purple.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

The Tour de France is the world's largest cycling race which is held every year. Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire? This year the race will begin in Germany.

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers. Why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today?

The Tour de France is unusual as instead of winning a medal, the cyclists win different coloured jerseys! The different jerseys represent different awards. The white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year the race will begin in Dusseldorf in Germany on the 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in Paris on 23rd July, like it has done for the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 13 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 10 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 12 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 2 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 2 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline 3 verb tense errors in purple.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

teh Tour de france iz the world's largest cycling race which is hold every year Last year the Tour de France starts Normandy, France and the year befor itt started in Leeds, england Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire this year the race wil begin in Germany cycling first begin gaining a reputation as popular sport inn the late 19th century cycling woz particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers why do you fink the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today The very first winner of The Tour de France was Maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists took part in the race Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. Thats more than doubled! Do you think they all complete the race

the Tour de France is unusual az the cyclists dont win a medal, instead they win diferent coloured jerseys! the different jerseys represent different awards the white Jersey given to the best young rider under 26 years old the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter the yellow jersey is given to the leader ov the race and the red polka dot jersey is giving to the best climber

this year is the Tour de France's 104th race The race is set owt intoo 21 stages – a different stage each day this year the race will began in Dusseldorf in germany the 1st July The cyclists will also passed through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France finally, the race will kome to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in Paris on 23rd July, like it has done fore the past 42 years

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 14 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 15 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 3 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 2 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline 6 verb tense errors in purple.
7. Add the 2 missing commas (for a list) in light purple.
8. Mark the 4 missing words in orange.
9. Add 2 missing apostrophes for contractions in pink.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

The Tour de France is the world's largest cycling race which is held every year. Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire? This year the race will begin in Germany.

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers. Why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today? The very first winner of The Tour de France was Maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists took part in the race. Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. That's more than doubled! Do you think they all complete the race?

The Tour de France is unusual as the cyclists don't win a medal, instead they win different coloured jerseys! The different jerseys represent different awards. The white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year the race will begin in Dusseldorf in Germany on the 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in Paris on 23rd July, like it has done for the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 14 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 15 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 3 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 2 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline 6 verb tense errors in purple.
7. Add the 2 missing commas (for a list) in light purple.
8. Mark the 4 missing words in orange.
9. Add 2 missing apostrophes for contractions in pink.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

teh Tour de france iz the worlds largest cycling race which is hold every year Last year the Tour de France starts Normandy, France and the year befor itt started in Leeds, england Can you remember when they sycled threw Yorkshire this year the race wil begin in germany cycling first begin gaining a reputation as populer sport inn the late 19th century cycling woz particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers why do you fink the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is tудay The very first winner of the Tour de France was maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists tuck part in race Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. Thats more than doubled Do you think they all complete the race

the Tour de france is unusual az the cyclists dont win a medal, instead they win diferent coloured jerseys! the different jerseys represent different awards the white Jersey given to the best yung rider under 26 years old the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter the yellow jersey is given to the leeder ov the race and the read polka dot jersey is giving to the best climber

this year is the Tour De Frances 104th race The race is set owt intoo 21 stages – a different stage eech day this year the race will began in Dusseldorf in Germany the 1st July The cyclists will also passed through belgium and luxembourg as well as France finally, the race will kome to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in paris on 23rd July, like it has done fore the passed 42 years

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 19 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 25 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 3 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 3 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline 6 verb tense errors in purple.
7. Add the 2 missing commas (for a list) in light purple.
8. Mark 5 missing words in orange.
9. Add 2 missing apostrophes for contractions in pink.
10. Add 1 missing apostrophe for possession in dark green.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

The Tour de France is the worlds largest cycling race which is held every year. Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire? This year the race will begin in Germany.

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers. Why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today? The very first winner of the Tour de France was Maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists took part in the race. Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. That's more than doubled! Do you think they all complete the race?

The Tour de France is unusual as the cyclists don't win a medal, instead they win different coloured jerseys! The different jerseys represent different awards. The white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year the race will begin in Dusseldorf in Germany on the 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in Paris on 23rd July, like it has done for the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 19 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 25 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 3 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 3 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline 6 verb tense errors in purple.
7. Add the 2 missing commas (for a list) in light purple.
8. Mark 5 missing words in orange.
9. Add 2 missing apostrophes for contractions in pink.
10. Add 1 missing apostrophe for possession in dark green.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

teh Tour de france iz the world's largest cycling race which is hold every year Last year the Tour de France starts Normandy, France and the year befor itt started in Leeds, england Can you remmember when they sycled threw Yorkshire this year the race wil begin in germany Are there 21 stages to the tour de France which usually takes place in june/July and it lasts for 3 weeks. Do you know how many kilometers the cyclists have to cover? 3,500km! That is a lot of cycling

cycling first begin gaining a reputation as populer sport inn the late 19th century cycling woz particularly popular in france and started to gain attention in all the sports papers why do you fink the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is tудay The winner very first of Tour de France was maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists tuck part in the race now, almost 200 riders begin the race. Thats more than doubled do you think they all complete the race

the Tour de france is unusaul az the cyclists dont win a medal; instead they win diferent coloured jerseys! the different jerseys represent different awards the white Jersey given to the best yung rider under 26 years old the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter the yellow jersey is given to the leeder ov the race and the read polka dot jersey is giving to the best climber

this year is the Tour de Frances 104th race race is set owt intoo 21 stages – a different stage eech day this year the race will began in dusseldorf in Germany the 1st July The cyclists will also passed through belgium and luxembourg as well as France finally, the race will kome to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in paris on 23rd July, like it has done fore the passed 42 years

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 24 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 28 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 3 question marks in yellow.
5. Add 4 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline words written in the wrong order in dark green.
7. Underline 6 verb tense errors in purple.
8. Add 6 missing words in orange.
9. Add the 2 missing commas in light purple.
10. Add 3 missing apostrophes in dark pink.
11. Draw a pair of brackets in brown.
12. Add two missing dashes in grey.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

The Tour de France is the world's largest cycling race which is held every year. Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire? This year the race will begin in Germany. There are 21 stages to the tour de France (which usually takes place in June/July) and it lasts for 3 weeks. Do you know how many kilometres the cyclists have to cover? 3,500km! That is a lot of cycling!

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France and started to gain attention in all the sports papers. Why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today? The very first winner of the Tour de France was Maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists took part in the race. Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. That's more than doubled! Do you think they all complete the race?

The Tour de France is unusual as the cyclists don't win a medal; instead they win different coloured jerseys! The different jerseys represent different awards. The white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year the race will begin in Dusseldorf – in Germany – on the 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish on the Champs-Elysees, in Paris on 23rd July, like it has done for the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 24 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 28 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 3 question marks in yellow.
5. Add 4 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline words written in the wrong order in dark green.
7. Underline 6 verb tense errors in purple.
8. Add 6 missing words in orange.
9. Add the 2 missing commas in light purple.
10. Add 3 missing apostrophes in dark pink.
11. Draw a pair of brackets in brown.
12. Add two missing dashes in grey.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

the Tour de France is the world's largest cycling race. It is held every year. Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire this year the race will begin in Germany. Are there 21 stages to the Tour de France which usually takes place in June/July and it lasts for 3 weeks. Do you know how many kilometers the cyclists have to cover 3,500km! That is a lot of cycling.

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France. It started to gain attention in all the sports papers. Why do you think cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today? The winner of the first Tour de France was Maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists took part in the race. Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. That's more than doubled. Do you think they all complete the race?

The Tour de France is unusual as the cyclists don't win a medal, instead they win different coloured jerseys. The different jerseys represented different awards. The white jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old. The green jersey is presented to the best sprinter. The yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race. The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year the race will begin in Düsseldorf in Germany on 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish on the Champs-Élysées, in Paris on 23rd July like it has done for the past 42 years.

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 26 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 30 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 4 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 5 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline words written in the wrong order in dark green.
7. Underline 8 verb tense errors in purple.
8. Add 6 missing words in orange.
9. Add 4 missing apostrophes in dark pink.
10. Draw 1 pair of brackets in brown.
11. Add 2 missing dashes in grey.
12. Add 2 missing semicolons in light pink.
13. Add 2 missing colons in dark red.

The Tour de France – Editing Task

The Tour de France is the world's largest cycling race; it is held every year. Last year the Tour de France started in Normandy, France and the year before it started in Leeds, England. Can you remember when they cycled through Yorkshire? This year the race will begin in Germany. There are 21 stages to the Tour de France (which usually takes place in June/July) and it lasts for 3 weeks. Do you know how many kilometres the cyclists have to cover? 3,500km! That is a lot of cycling!

Cycling first began gaining a reputation as a popular sport in the late 19th century. Cycling was particularly popular in France; it started to gain attention in all the sports papers. Why do you think the cycling wasn't shown on the TV like it is today? The very first winner of The Tour de France was Maurice Garin. Back in 1903, only 60 cyclists took part in the race. Now, almost 200 riders begin the race. That's more than doubled! Do you think they all complete the race?

The Tour de France is unusual as the cyclists don't win a medal; instead they win different coloured jerseys! The different jerseys represent different awards: the white Jersey is given to the best young rider under 26 years old, the green jersey is presented to the best sprinter, the yellow jersey is given to the leader of the race and the red polka dot jersey is given to the best climber.

This year is the Tour de France's 104th race! The race is set out into 21 stages – a different stage each day. This year the race will begin in Dusseldorf – in Germany – on the 1st July. The cyclists will also pass through Belgium and Luxembourg as well as France. Finally, the race will come to a finish on the Champs-Élysées, in Paris on 23rd July: like it has done for the past 42 years!

Editing Challenge

1. Mark 26 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Add 11 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 30 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Add 4 missing question marks in yellow.
5. Add 5 exclamation marks in dark blue.
6. Underline words written in the wrong order in dark green.
7. Underline 8 verb tense errors in purple.
8. Add 6 missing words in orange.
9. Add 4 missing apostrophes in dark pink.
10. Draw 1 pair of brackets in brown.
11. Add 2 missing dashes in grey.
12. Add 2 missing semicolons in light pink.
13. Add 2 missing colons in dark red.